

Application
Marguerite and Lamar Smith Fellowship for Writers
Fall 2007

Columbus State University's
Carson McCullers Center for Writers and Musicians
Columbus, Georgia

Name:

Address:

E-mail:

Phone:

Results of the competition will be announced in early May. If you want the results to be sent to a different address, please give it below.

Application for Marguerite and Lamar Smith Fellowship
The Carson McCullers Center for Writers and Musicians – page 2

College degrees (with institutions and dates):

Fellowships, scholarships, prizes, or other honors:

Present Position:

Previous positions held, with dates:

List of published books, articles, short stories, or poetry: Give dates and names of publishers. (Attach a separate sheet, if desired.) Note: Unpublished writers are welcome to apply and will be given full consideration.

Application for Marguerite and Lamar Smith Fellowship
The Carson McCullers Center for Writers and Musicians – page 3

Why do you feel that you would be a suitable Smith/McCullers Fellow?

Application for Marguerite and Lamar Smith Fellowship
The Carson McCullers Center for Writers and Musicians – page 4

Describe the nature and extent of work you would expect to accomplish during a three-month residence in Columbus.

Application for Marguerite and Lamar Smith Fellowship
The Carson McCullers Center for Writers and Musicians – page 5

Provide three copies of:

- 1.) The Application Form
- 2.) A Writing Sample (no more than 20 pages)
- 3.) If you wish, you may include any book or books that you have published.

Mail the entire package to: The Carson McCullers Center
Department of Language and Literature
Columbus State University
4225 University Avenue
Columbus, GA 31907

All applications must be postmarked on or before April 1, 2007. All applications will be acknowledged. Announcement of winner will be made in early May 2007.